

Dear Educator,

Having provided furnishings to many learning institutions nationwide, National Office Furniture's goal is to deliver confidence and personal expression by providing you the best possible products and services. We know you are striving to do the same with the endeavors your organization is working towards. Through associations like APPA and others we have gained additional insight to the challenges facing educational institutions. We recognize the current economy is one of the challenges you are facing. Raising the necessary funds to nurture the ideas and dreams of your institution is important and we would like to assist you in those efforts.

That's why National Office Furniture would like to do our part in assisting your university or school by giving you an opportunity to win a $10,000 Gift of Inspiration.

Entering is easy. Simply register at www.NationalOfficeFurniture.com/Education and your learning institution is automatically entered to win the $10,000 Gift of Inspiration. It really is that simple. No purchase necessary, no strings attached.

Scholarships, endowments, learning materials and programs are just a few examples where this Gift of Inspiration can positively impact students, faculty or administrators. We know you'll put this gift to great use.

We believe in building stronger communities and through your efforts, this gift will enrich the lives of many people. We wish your organization much success in creating an environment that promotes creativity and a passion for success through extraordinary learning experiences.

Sincerely,

Don Van Winkle
Vice President, General Manager
